

ARCHMILL HOUSE is a leading custom manufacturer of high-end architectural millwork and premium store fixtures serving commercial, institutional and retail markets. Archmill has worked tirelessly to build a reputation as the most respected and trusted millwork companies in Canada, possessing the experience and resources to meet any challenge. Our primary focus is on market segments where quality custom architectural millwork matters.

We are looking for a:

Production Engineer

ABOUT THE ROLE: We're looking for a dynamic and energetic person to add to our growing Engineering team. Working within a collaborative environment, you will bridge Project Management and Production requirements in order facilitate the realization of our client's manufacturing requirements.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Read, interpret and understand contract drawings and specifications, and maintains conformance with internal shop standards
- Hands on experience in the construction and/or installation Commercial Millwork shop is required
- AutoCAD or experience in any or all of the following programs is essential: Top Solid, Inventor, Solid Works, Cabinet Vision
- Experience working with an ERP system
- Knowledgeable with Architectural Millwork, Cabinetry or Store fixture fabrication
- The ability to value engineer a product based on material and hardware requirements and limitations
- The ability to work from architectural drawings, renderings, site photos, hand sketches, etc.
- Review shop drawings from external suppliers, vendors and other project documentation to ensure accuracy
- Read and interpret Architectural Drawings and scope of work from Estimating to create clear shop drawings
- Ensure completeness of details required to produce a full and comprehensive take-off

WHO WE'RE LOOKING FOR: This role is critical to our success, and therefore highly valued within our organization. The right candidate will be comfortable working collaboratively within a team, ensuring the overall scope of work is performed within prescribed timelines. The right candidate will be comfortable working collaboratively within a team, ensuring the overall scope of work is performed within prescribed timelines. You possess extensive technical skills, can work to prevent/resolve errors, and are trusted to work independently to meet strict timelines.

YOUR SKILLS & EXPERIENCE

- Minimum College level diploma/certificate in Woodworking Technology, Drafting, or a related field is preferred
- 3-5 years experience as an architectural millwork engineer is preferred
- Minimum 1 year shop experience as a cabinet maker or architectural millwork installer
- Ability to review Architectural drawings, contract documents & specifications
- Knowledge of AWMAC Standard is considered as an asset
- LEED certification or knowledge is preferred

WHAT WE OFFER: This is a full-time permanent position at of our office in Ancaster and offer competitive salary and benefits. As a growing team we are committed to mentoring each other to continuously learn and as this is a small team, each member is valued for their individual

HOW TO APPLY: If you require accommodation in the recruitment process, please contact us with the "Need Help" button in the application. We will review applications as they are received and look forward to hearing from you.

Archmill is an equal opportunity employer and encourage minorities, contributions and efforts.

women, protected veterans and disabled individuals to apply.