

Formwork Carpenter

Job Description

This position is based on a standard 40-44 hours work week with added overtime as required. Successful candidates will be able to work overtime, shift work, weekends and be available for projects out of town.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Construction, erection and install of wood and engineered formwork systems for columns, walls, suspended slabs, slab on grade and concrete stairs
- Stripping and removal of concrete formwork after concrete pours
- Erect and build scaffolding for access and concrete formwork decks
- Install anchor bolts and embedded steel for concrete
- Build hoardings and temporary shelters
- Complete task hazard assessments and maintain a safe work environment
- General labour duties and cleanup as required
- May work with or near chemicals, cranes and moving equipment

Qualifications and Skills

- Hold a valid Carpenters ticket, or have equivalent experience in commercial formwork
- Have previous work experience in rough carpentry, forming and framing
- Be in good health and physically fit
- Able to work at heights and balance on platforms, scaffolds and decks
- Able to work alone, or as part of a team
- Display good verbal and written communication skills when working with other employees
- Knowledge in trade related math and basic survey and layout
- Hardworking and able to readily accept and apply direction from supervisor

Hand and finger dexterity for reaching, handling and feeling while working

Whmis, working at heights & worker health and safety awareness certifications are required.

What we can offer you:

- Full-time Position (44 hrs/week)

- Generous Benefits package after 3 months employment including Health, Dental, Vision and more
- Positive work environment with opportunities for advancement, where your professional growth is supported.

Interested applicants should email HR@reimar.ca with a resume.